

I commend the ARRL for proposing RM-10867. It's been a long time coming; simplification of licensure makes it a lot easier for all. But I still believe that Morse Code is antiquated and should be made optional for those who want to be proficient with it. Remove it all together and once again we will see an upsurge in new membership.

Will S. Tomas K6WST